Eco-Squad Minutes: Tuesday 21st January

Eco-squad shared updates:

- Lots of litter around school – Y5/6 ask staff member on duty but can litter pick by the field – along the large fence where there is a lot of litter.
- Missing Orange Compost Buckets – Mr Scott to buy two more
- Y6 Compost Bin rota clashes with rota for registers – Y6 to discuss with Miss Morse whether register rota can change easily.
- Weather improving to access forest school – can now fill up bird feeders (new food in Mr Scott's office)
- Thank you for completing the environmental review – discussed findings and actions.

Action to take place now:

- Every class to ensure they have a light switch monitor
- Y6 to start taking electric meter readings on Fridays
- Eco-Squad to create poster tips for Friday Focus (one tip for each poster).
- Every class to have an indoor plant.
- Uniform Swap Shop first Friday of every month.

Future ideas:

- Energy Saving Poster Competition – Winners will have their posters up around school.
- Litter Picking in the Wedge in March
- Wildflower planting in April
- 'Electric Switch off' in May

Future ideas to discuss with Mrs Maude:

- No Meat Day in the canteen
- Fundraising for WWF – Non-school uniform (dressing up as an endangered animal / colours of endangered animal)
