At Coundon Primary, we would like our new Headteacher to have the following qualities and be :

- Strict when it is necessary, but not overly strict. Firm, but fair, especially with younger children who might be scared.
- Someone who makes the right decisions for the benefit of our school.
- Have a good sense of humour and fun.
- Someone that we can trust and rely upon.
- Someone that fits in well with our school values and makes it feel like we are a big family.
- Someone that can adapt quickly and make good decisions.
- Someone who understands that children are all different, and knows how to talk to us.
- Someone who can lead the school into the future and fill in gaps where we are weaker and make improvements.
- Someone who is supportive, friendly and genuinely cares for us.
- Someone who gets involved with the children and the things we do
- Someone who can take his or her responsibility seriously, but in a friendly way.
- An honest, respectful leader who is confident and isn't scared to talk in front to large audiences.
- Someone who is willing to be an excellent ambassador and can bring new ideas and opportunities to the school.
- Someone who understands about children's emotional and mental health and well-being.
