

Year 3
AUTUMN		SPRING		SUMMER
Theme: Extreme Survival		Theme: Tomb Raiders		Theme: Meet the Flintstones
Genre	Possible outcomes	Genre	Possible outcomes	Genre	Possible outcomes
Author Study - Anne Fine 2 weeks	*Review different Anne Fine stories - express personal preferences *Write a diary of a killer X in the style of Anne Fine	Write Stuff: Traditional Tales - Alternative Perspectives The True story of the Three Little Pigs	*Write own version of a well-known tale from a different / alternative perspective	Write Stuff: Narrative Text Study - Stone Age Boy	*Write a new story based on stone age life.
Write Stuff: Narrative -Story: Star in a jar 5 weeks	*Write own story: Continuation of the plot/ Different characters / different plot *Retell the story from the star's perspective	Write Stuff: Non-Chronological Report skeletons and Muscles Report	*Discuss the advantages and disadvantages of different skeletons *Non- Chronological report on chosen animal	Write Stuff: Explanation - How A Robot Dog Works	*Write explanations linked to mummification including how to create a mummy or why mummies were created
Persuasion	*Write posters and persuasive leaflets linked to adopting an endangered animal	Write Stuff: Instructions My Strong Mind	*Write instructions on how to deal with problems and how to create a strong mind.	Write Stuff: Narrative The Incredible Book Eating Boy.	*Write own story about an incredible child.
Write Stuff: Poet Study - Autumn is Here	*Create a poem for another season such as Winter.			Write Stuff: Poetry I asked the Little Boy Who Couldn't See.	*Pupils write a different colour poem.